OFF BOON ISLAND.

Several Seiners Got Mackerel Schools Saturday.

NO FISH REPORTED ON GEORGES.

Many Seiners Here To-day, Mostly Small Fares.

Sixteen sail of mackerel catchers have arrived since last report with 1681 barrels of salt mackerel, the largest day's receipts for some time.

The fleet here from the eastward, Maine Coast, Isles of Shoals and Boon Island, but many have some Georges and Bay of Fundy fish on board.

Sch. Nourmahal, Capt. Flar McKown, has the largest fare, 260 barrels salt mackerel, all taken recently off the Maine Coast and Boon Island.

Sch. Emma W. Brown, Capt. Charles Doucette, has a nice fare 230 barrels, also taken off Boon Island.

Sch. Richard Lester, Capt. Webber, has a fine fare, 240 barrels of salt fish taken on Georges and in the Bay of Fundy.

The other vessels have from 10 barrels to 150 barrels each.

The total receipts are far from large, when the number of arrivals is considered.

Schs. Helen Miller Gould and Victor were off Boon Island yesterday. They have been to Georges, South Channel and way out to No Man's Land and found no fish.

There was quite a lot of fish off Boon Island Saturday, and quite a number of the fleet got hauls. The fish, however, are in small schools.

Sch. Northern Eagle had 25 barrels of fresh mackerel from Boon Island at the Fort this morning, and sch. A. C. Newhall had seven barrels of tinkers.

Sch. Altama, which arrived from netting off Plymouth, has 14 barrels of salt mackerel.

The gasoline auxiliary sch. Dorcas landed 14 barrels of salt mackerel at Portland recently.

The fare of fresh mackerel of steamer Vigilant, landed at Provincetown Sunday were put in the freezer.

Off Provincetown Saturday night, the netter Carrie Tyler secured 800 mackerel the Active 800, John W. Caswell 700, Pearl 500 and Barbara 400 mackerel although the weather was boisterous.

Sch. John M. Plummer was at Portland Saturday with 120 barrels salt mackerel.

The fare of sch. Mizpah sold to George Perkins & Son at $12.50 per barrel for rimmed and $11.50 for plain, and the fare of sch. Dauntless to the same firm.

The fare of sch. Emma W. Brown sold to the Gloucester Mackerel Co., at $12.50 per bbl. for rimmed, $11.75 for plain and $10 for tinkers.

STOCKS AND FARES.

What Some of the Fleet Have Been Doing.

Good Prices and Big Trips Mean Much to Fishermen.

Sch. Talisman, Capt. John McInnis, stocked $6817.45 on her recent dory hand line cod fishing trip, weighing out 200,000 pounds of salt cod, the high line share being $182.78. On his two trips thus far this season, Capt. McInnis has stocked $15,318.78, which is far and away high line of the salt fishing fleet and a record breaker for dory handlining up to this time. Capt. McInnis will now make a third trip, which means the largest dory hand line season's stock on record.

Sch. W. H. Moody, Capt. Henry Jacobs, stocked $3290 on her recent short salt trip. This is a fine stock for a brief trip. Capt. Jacobs has been doing well.

Sch. Rob Roy, Capt. Julius Anderson, stocked $2483 on her recent shack trip, the crew sharing $84.12. Skippers who do better than Capt. Anderson in the shack or haddock fishery are scarce.

Sch. Niagara, Capt. Adelbert Nickerson, stocked $2100 on her recent halibut trip, the crew sharing $50.

Sch. Hattie M. Graham, Capt. John S. Seavey, stocked $3477.55 as the result of her recent seining trip, the crew sharing $80.66. Capt. Seavey has made some fine stocks thus far this season, and is up in the front row with a stock of $13,000.

Capt. Seavey has always been one of the leaders among mackerel catchers and is generally found among the top-notchers at the close of the season.

Fine Mackerel Fare.

Sch. F. W. Homans, Capt. William Melanson, arrived this noon from a seining trip, with a full fare, 300 barrels of salt mackerel. This is all the vessel will carry, and every barrel on board is full. Capt. Melanson reports going right round the circle, from Georges, off Yarmouth and Mt. Desert, getting some fish at each place, and finishing up at Boon Island.

Capt. Melanson had a hard streak this season previous to this fare, and his friends are pleased at his success this time and hope it will continue.
